HOLY NAME CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC

The Holy Name Conservatory of Music offers private lessons in piano, voice & violin to Holy Name School students, alumni and parishioners. All students are invited to participate in the Conservatory's program of recitals held throughout the year. Private study on a musical instrument is a rewarding endeavor that offers an appreciation for the arts, while teaching a wide range of skills including hand-eye coordination, self-discipline and time management.

Registrations for 2007-08 are now being accepted. Registering in the Fall applies to the full school year. The fall payment is due with the registration form. Parents will be billed in December for the spring payment. Most students should be able to attend 30 to 32 lessons out of the 36-week school year, beginning the week of Tuesday, September 4, 2007. This number is determined by counting the weeks in the school year and omitting school holidays and field trips. Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

EASY WORDS, HARSH WORDS

“If you were raised with Christ, seek what is above,” we hear today (Colossians 3:1). “Think of what is above” as well. Easy to comprehend. Good advice. Only common sense. But the ability to seek and think of what is above, Paul tells us, comes only at a price. In order to have truly died so that our life of glory is with Christ in heaven, we must put to death—as Christ was put to death on a cross—all those things about our life “below” that impede our living for Christ and with Christ as our all in all. We cannot really seek and think about things above while we maintain the worst of our human passions, perpetuate our deceitfulness, and emphasize our differences. In this way we not only continue the lying to one another, but still lie to ourselves, and imagine that we can deceive God. Only in the stopping of this can we truly show forth our baptismal image: that of Christ, who is the image of the unseen God. Only then can we take off that old self and be that new creation, the image of our Creator fully restored in Christ.

HARSH WORDS, HEAVENLY WORDS

There are all sorts of reverberations of these themes throughout today’s scriptures. Qoheleth (the “Preacher”) instructs us that, ultimately, everything of our life on earth is but an empty vanity when we are called from this life. Jesus shows us our true selves in the example of the man who expends all his energy to store his harvest to ensure the luxury of his future. Qoheleth, Paul, and Jesus are all of a like mind on this issue. We have been made in the image of our Creator, we believe that God’s creation is graced and good, but we need to keep this in perspective. For all creation and all creatures—humans included—will have naught for a destiny unless that destiny is joined to that of Christ. He preaches that we can be, indeed we must be, rich with treasure—but only the kind of treasure that truly matters to God.

*Today’s Readings: Ecclesiastes 1:2; 2:21–23; Psalm 90:3–6, 12–14, 17;
Colossians 3:1–5, 9–11;
Luke 12:13–21*
